

DOCEXDOCE Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes how your personal information will be collected and used for the purpose of the competition content.

PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

When you sign up to DOCEXDOCE, we automatically collect all the personal information provided in the registration form:

- (a) information that you post to our website or e-mail for publication on the internet (including your name, surname, university name, your picture/video and the content of your submission);
- (b) any other personal information that you choose to send to us.

Before you disclose to us the personal information of another person, you must obtain that person's consent to both the disclosure and the processing of that personal information in accordance with this policy.

USING PERSONAL INFORMATION

Personal information submitted to us through our website/email/social media will be used for the purposes specified in this policy or on the relevant pages of the website.

We may use your personal information to:

- (a) personalise our website for you;
- (b) send you the competition awards;
- (c) send you non-marketing commercial communications;
- (d) send you email notifications that you have specifically requested;
- (e) send you communications relating to DOCEXDOCE or our partners which we think may be of interest to you via e-mail (you can inform us at any time if you no longer require marketing communications);
- (f) provide third parties with statistical information about our network (but those third parties will not be able to identify any individual user from that information);
- (g) deal with enquiries and complaints made by or about you relating to our competition;
- (h) keep our website secure and prevent fraud;

DISCLOSING PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will disclose your personal information to any of our organizers, collaborators & ambassadors or other member reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.

We may disclose your personal information:

- (a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;
- (b) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk);

INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFER

Information that we collect may be stored and processed in and transferred between any of the countries in which we operate in order to enable us to use the information in accordance with this policy.

Personal information that we publish with your consent on our website/social media may be available, via the internet, around the world. We cannot prevent the use or misuse of such information by others.

YOUR RIGHTS

You may instruct us to provide you with any personal information we hold about you; provision of such information will be subject to:

- (a) the payment of a fee; and
- (b) the supply of appropriate evidence of your identity.

You have the right to access the personal information we hold about you and to ask that your personal information be corrected, updated, or deleted.

We may withhold personal information that you request to the extent permitted by law.

You may instruct us at any time not to process your personal information for marketing purposes.

In practice, you will usually either expressly agree in advance to our use of your personal information for marketing purposes, or we will provide you with an opportunity to opt out of the use of your personal information for marketing purposes.

We will not, without your express consent, supply your personal information to any third party for the purpose of their or any other third party's direct marketing.

THIRD PARTIES WEBSITES

Our website includes hyperlinks to, and details of, third party websites. We have no control over, and are not responsible for, the privacy policies and practices of third parties.

CHANGES

We may update this privacy policy from time to time in order to reflect, for example, changes to our practices or for other operational, legal or regulatory reasons.
